AMENDMENTS TO TARIFF OF COSTS
APPROVED BY JUDGES OF THE
SUPREME COURT, JULY 15TH, 1920,
AND BEING APPENDIX M TO THE RULES OF THE SUPREME COURT OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

Appendix M to the Rules of the Supreme Court of British Columbia, 1943, being the tariff of costs approved by the Judges of the Supreme Court on the 15th day of July, 1920, is amended:—

1. By striking out the words "in all . . . fee" following Item 42 of Schedule 5.

2. By striking out Items 52 to 66, inclusive, in Schedule 5 and inserting the following:—

"52. All services rendered in probate and administration matters, actions, causes, or proceedings, whether contentious or not, shall, save as herein otherwise provided, be taxed and allowed in accordance with Schedules 4 and 5 hereof.

"53. In lieu of fees allowed under Item 52, the following fees or charges, exclusive of disbursements, may be charged, and if charged, shall, subject to the provisions hereinafter contained, be allowed for all necessary services to obtain a grant of letters probate or of administration, preparation and filing of probate and succession duty forms or similar statements or affidavits for the Province of British Columbia and the Dominion of Canada, and settling all duties assessed by the said Province and Dominion (not including any application to a Judge or the Court or other Court proceedings in respect of such duties) and, where necessary, all process and proceedings relating to the passing of the first accounts of the executor or administrator:—

"For any estate of which the aggregate value exceeds $400 but does not exceed $500,000, 2 per cent. of such value, with a minimum of $50;

"For any estate of which the aggregate value exceeds $500,000, the above fee on the first $500,000 plus 1 per cent. of the amount by which such aggregate value exceeds the sum of $500,000.

"54. In all cases of resealing in British Columbia, grants of letters probate or administration or similar proceedings, the fees set out in Items 52 or 53 may be allowed, but the aggregate value of the estate shall be the aggregate value of that portion of the estate situate within British Columbia.

"55. Aggregate value of an estate shall be deemed to include the value of all real and personal property or interest therein passing or accruing to any person upon the death of the deceased by operation of law or otherwise, and to include the value of any life insurance payable as a consequence of the death of the deceased other than life insurance payable to a person who is neither the personal representative of the deceased nor a beneficiary of the estate."

3. By striking out Schedule 6, including the words following Item 9, and inserting in the place thereof the following:—

"SCALE OF CONVEYANCING FEES.

"1. For ordinary conveyance or mortgage or agreement for sale, including searching title, checking taxes, water rates and fire insurance, preparation and execution of conveyance, mortgage, or agreement for sale, settling adjustments, drawing application to register and attending to register:—

"One per cent. on the first $2,500 on the purchase money or money advanced on mortgage, with a minimum of $15;

"One-half of 1 per cent. on the next $47,500;

"One-quarter of 1 per cent. on any amount over $50,000.

"2. If the conveyance or mortgage contains special covenants, then in addition to the above fees:—

"(a) Drawing, per folio $0.30

"(b) Engrossing, per folio15

"(c) Fee to counsel to settle 25.00

"Provided that the fee for an ordinary conveyance pursuant to a registered agreement for sale shall be one-half the fees provided by Item 1.

"And provided further that where the purchase of property is carried out by a conveyance and the taking back of a mortgage to secure the balance of the purchase price, the fees shall be based on the total purchase price and shall be one and one-half times the fees provided by Item 1.

"3. Procuration fee when a loan is negotiated by a solicitor:—

"One-half of 1 per cent. up to $10,000; and

"One-quarter of 1 per cent. for any amount beyond $10,000.

"4. Perusing title deeds and documents, per folio, 30 cents.

"5. All attendances and journeys not provided for in this Schedule shall be taxed and allowed in accordance with Items 22 to 31 of Schedule 5.

"There may be included in any bill to which Schedule 4, 5, or 6 of this tariff is applicable, and if included shall be allowed by the Registrar, a further allowance equal to 25 per cent. of the said bill exclusive of actual disbursements: Provided that nothing herein contained shall increase the minimum fees as fixed by Item 53 of Schedule 5 and the fees fixed by Items 1 to 3 of Schedule 6.

"The Registrar shall have power:—

"(a) To allow such fees or make such allowances as he may deem reasonable and proper for any services which are not covered by or included in any of the items in the said Schedules 4, 5, and 6:

"(b) The Registrar shall have power (if the special circumstances warrant) to increase or reduce the fees or any of them hereinbefore provided for.

"The findings of the Registrar under the power hereinbefore provided for shall be subject to review by a Judge as if it had come before him in the first instance."

The foregoing amendments shall apply to all taxations held on or after the 15th day of May, 1948, and shall extend to all costs subject to taxation which have been incurred prior to that date and which shall not have been theretofore taxed.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¼ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated September 25th, 1944.

NOTICE is hereby given that "Terpening Ranches, Limited," was incorporated under the "Companies Act" on the 21st day of April, 1948.

The authorized capital of the Company is one hundred thousand dollars, divided into one thousand shares of one hundred dollars each.

The address of its registered office is at the law office of R. R. Earle, K.C., 10224 Tenth Avenue, Dawson Creek, B.C.

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(a) To take over from Arthur Joseph Terpening of Taylor, British Columbia, rancher, certain lands and premises, buildings, machinery, equipment, motor-vehicles, trucks, wagons, horses and harness, presently in use by him, in respect of the farming and ranching business carried on by the said Arthur Joseph Terpening, in the vicinity of Taylor, British Columbia, in his own name, some of the money for which said property and business has been contributed from time to time by the said Terpening and by Guy S. Clark, of 1601 Sawtelle Boulevard, Los Angeles, 25, California, U.S.A., and by Albert Barnett and Bertram B. Hughes and Edna Larkin, all of 1379 Sixth Avenue, San Francisco, California, and to pay for the same by issuing fully paid-up and non-assessable shares in the Company, and for that purpose to enter into an agreement in writing with the said Arthur Joseph Terpening for the taking-over by the Company of said property and the issue of said shares to the said above-named parties and to other persons who may subscribe and pay for shares in the Company:

(b) To purchase, take on lease or in exchange or otherwise acquire estates, lands, buildings, tenements and other real property of every description, whether freehold, equitable, leasehold, or other tenure, and any interest therein and any rights connected therewith, and to hold, sell, let, alienate, manage, work, develop the resources of, turn to account, mortgage, charge, or otherwise deal with the same or any part or parts thereof:

(c) To acquire by purchase, exchange, or otherwise from any person, firm, or corporation all or any part of any business or businesses, good-will, stock-in-trade, fixtures, equipment, or other personal property that the Company may deem profitable, or that in the opinion of the Company may be operated profitably or sold at a profit, and to hold, operate, manage, develop, improve, lease, sell, or otherwise deal with or dispose of the same:

(d) To erect and construct houses, buildings, shops, stores, or works of every description on any land of the Company, or upon any other lands or hereditaments, and to pull down, rebuild, enlarge, alter, and improve existing houses, buildings, or works thereon, and generally to deal with and improve the property of the Company:

(e) To manufacture, buy, sell and generally deal in any plant, machinery, tools, goods, or things of any description which, in the opinion of the Company, may be conveniently dealt with by the Company in connection with any of its objects or otherwise:

(f) To acquire real and personal property or rights as the Company may see fit, and to allot as a whole or part of the consideration therefor fully or partly paid stock of the capital of the Company, or notes, debentures or other securities of the Company, or any part of the real and personal property and rights of the Company:

(g) To borrow or raise money, and for the purposes of securing the same, or for any other legitimate purposes, to mortgage or charge the undertaking of all or any part of the property of the Company, real or personal, present or future, acquired, including all uncalled capital:

(h) To create, issue, make, draw, accept, endorse or negotiate, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, applications and other negotiable and transferable instruments:

(i) To do all such things as are incidental to or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them.
